A Badge of Honesty

Is printed on the outer wrapper of every bottle of

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

and it is the only medicine for woman's peculiar ailments, sold by druggists, the makers of which feel fully warranted in thus taking the afflicted into their full confidence

The more known about the composition of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the more confidently will invalid women rely upon it to cure their peculiar weaknesses and derangements. There's no secrecy about its make-up-no deceptive inducements held out to the afflicted. It's simply a good, honest, square deal medicine with no alcohol, or injurious, habit-forming drugs in its composition. Made wholly from roots. It can do no harm in any condition of woman's organism.

Devised and put up by a physician of vast experience in the treatment of woman's maladies. Its ingredients have the indorsement of leading physicians in all

The "Favorite Prescription" is known everywhere as the standard remedy for diseases of women and has been so regarded for the past 40 years and more.

Accept no secret nostrum in place of "Favorite Prescription"—a medicine OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, with a record of 40 years of cures behind it.

It's foolish and often dangerous to experiment with new or but slightly tested medicines-sometimes urged upon the afflicted as "just as good" or better than "Favorite Prescription." The dishonest dealer sometimes insists that he knows what the proffered substitute is made of, but you don't and it is decidedly for your interest that you should know what you are taking into your stomach and system expecting it to act as a curative. To him its only a difference of profit. Therefore, insist on having Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

A useful article for housewives who do their own preserving is the jarholder, designed by an lowa mar. It will not only keep the jars from breaking and allow them to cool quickly, but will save the person who handles them from burning her hands. There is a circular metal frame with holes in it to permit the tops of jars to pass through. Arms with their ends bent down extend out from this frame and fit over the rim of a basin or other large pan, and one of these arms is adjustable so that it can be screwed tight to hold the whole contrivance firmly in position. The jars can be placed in the basin and the framework drawn over them and screwed fast. This leaves space between each jar so that they may cool quickly, where otherwise they stand close together, and each helps the other retain the heat. Then the jars are filled with the preserving mixture. whatever it may be, the lids screwed on and the basin removed to a convenient place till the preserves cool.

TAKES STAIN FROM MAHOGANY

Disfiguring Spots May Easily Be Removed, Though the Operation Requires Carefulness.

For the thumb mark that so often disfigures mahogany, or that blurred blue haze which clouds its polish there is a simple remedy which requires only a deft hand and a bit of courage, A soft rag or flannel, dampened with alcohol, must be passed quickly and lightly over the part. Water stains and liquor spots will disappear framediately. The amateur refinisher, however, must heed the warning that the work be done with great rapidity and absolute confidence in onesself. To slacken the wipe of the rag on the surface means that the polish will be roughened, and made to look streaked, or as if glue had been spilled, and a furniture expert will have to be called in to lend his skill toward bringing back the smooth mirror-like surface once again. In old time a wax polish was customary, and the servants worked with a will over every piece, so that their tables and chairs would outshine those of the next big house. A dull finish was unheard of, and lariness in the household, besides being a dust revealer, for even a fleck shows on unpolished furniture most

Irish Hash.

Take cold ment, put through grinder, and one small onion (if liked). mix this with gravy, season with salt and pepper, do not make too soft with gravy. Should be "about the same as mincemeat." Put on platter and mashed potatoes around the sides first, then over top. Garnish with hard boiled eggs and lettuce. This is most delicious, if correctly made, If you don't have any left over gravy put a piece of butter in frying pan and a spoonful of flour, brown, and trip tickets to Lexington, Ky., ac- add water to make thick gravy. Add count the above occasion at the rate more butter to make it rich. This can be served for luncheon or omit the eggs and serve with vegetables for

Nut Chowder.

Take one-half pound of mixed nut meats which have been broken into small pieces. Put them in a saucepan and allow them to simmer for an hour and thirty minutes. Peel and dice several potatoes, a turnip, and a good sized onion. Have a pint of canned or stewed tomatoes. Line the bottom of a kettle with a layer of potatoes, add a layer of the turnip and onion with a sprinkling of thyme, sweet marjoram, chopped parsley and salt, then a layer of tomatoes, and lastly the nut meats. Let simmer 30 minutes, then add one pint of milk and a little thickening.

Harrison Cake.

Two eggs well beaten, one cup sugar, one cup molasses, one cup melted butter, one cup sour milk, one teaspoon sods dissolved in the milk, two cups raisins, one teaspoon salt, cinnamon and allspice to suit the taste, four cups of flour stirred in a little at a time. This makes two loaves.
